

Emotional Expression

Worksheet (Grade Level)

Name _____

Question 1

Which emotions did you aim to express in your artwork, and how do the colors you selected help to convey these feelings?

Question 2

What shapes, lines, or textures did you use in your artwork, and how do they enhance the emotional message you wanted to communicate?

Question 3

Did your artwork change as you worked on it? Explain any decisions or adjustments you made and why.

Question 4

How does your artwork represent a personal experience, mood, or perspective? What elements did you include to make it meaningful to you?

Question 5

If someone else were to view your artwork without knowing its meaning, what emotions do you think they would feel? Why?

Notes:

Emotional Expression

Worksheet (Higher Level)

Name _____

Question 1

How do the color choices in your artwork create an emotional impact? Discuss how color theory or psychological associations influenced your decisions.

Question 2

In what ways do the shapes, lines, or textures in your artwork contribute to the overall mood and message? Analyze how these elements work together to enhance emotional expression.

Question 3

Reflect on the creative process—how did your initial concept evolve during the making of your artwork? What artistic challenges did you face, and how did you resolve them?

Question 4

How does your artwork reflect a personal or social perspective on emotions? Consider how cultural influences, lived experiences, or artistic inspirations shaped your approach.

Question 5

Interpretation can vary between viewers. How might different audiences perceive your artwork differently, and what factors (such as personal experiences or cultural background) could influence their understanding?

Notes:

Emotional Expression

Worksheet (Lower Level)

Name _____

Question 1

What feelings did you want to show in your artwork? How do the colors you used help express those feelings?

Question 2

What shapes, lines, or textures did you use in your artwork? How do they help show your emotions?

Question 3

Did your artwork change while you were making it? What did you change, and why?

Question 4

What part of your artwork is the most important to you? Why did you choose to include it?

Question 5

If someone looked at your artwork, what feelings do you think they would have? Why do you think that?

Notes: